The Blueprint Prophecy

The Blueprint Prophecy is the foundational document for Mike Bickle and his International House of Prayer (IHOP). Purportedly it was given prophetically by a mysterious unknown prophet, an event that was foretold by yet another prophet, Bob Jones. Confirmation was given by a third prophet, Paul Cain (2002 notes) or Augustine Alcalá (2009 notes) and also and by “supernatural encounter which included an angel and a demon.”

Bickle seems to enjoy lecturing about the fantastic stories surrounding this prophecy. And it is indeed foundational – The word talks about Kansas City, the bride, the Latter Rain, the restoration of the 5-fold ministry, forerunners, the House of Prayer, and many other things that would be identified as pertaining to IHOP.

And yet the question remains, is this a valid word from the Lord? One might suggest that it has been a self-fulfilling prophecy. Of greater concern is the secrecy surrounding this prophetic word, evidenced by its complete absence from David Pytches’ seminal work on the Kansas City Prophets “Some Said it Thundered.” Pytches wrote that book in 1991, 7 years after the prophecy had been received.

When Bickle finally decided to share the contents of the prophecy, He also determined to hold portions of it back. He shared limited portions of it in 1992 after Paul Cain’s “Consolidation Prophecy.” It was not until November 7, 2002, that Bickle determined to share more of the word, in the form in which we have today.

Significant portions may have been excluded. It is believed that many of the exclusions are noted in the printed versions we have today with ellipses (...) noting the deletions. More worrisome are the changes to the text, as if one could edit or change a supernaturally confirmed prophetic word.

I hope this paper will be of benefit to scholars and apologists everywhere as we examine this word to see “whether these things were so.”

God shall confirm in your spirit; and do not proceed until He does. Upon the confirmation you should begin to act immediately to take the bride to the city; to the city of Kansas City, rather than having the city come to Him.

Therefore there should be another...on the north side and on the east side and on the west side, even as it is on the south side. Therefore there shall be four.... I have shown you My grace. My grace is sufficient. My grace is Me in you and in this shall be the 5-fold ministry.

In days past, I have said... You are a Garden Center...of My choice says the Lord. In My Garden Center...I shall raise up...plants of renown... it shall be known, and the ways shall be renown. I will bring and place...those that will be the caretakers of My (Garden Center...). You shall be a dresser of My vineyard, says the Lord, and the vineyard shall be these people that I shall bring unto you and out of you.

Even out of the loins of the blood line of the flesh of Abraham--even as I said there would be many seeds and many nations, kindred, and tongues... I shall raise up and there shall flow forth many sons and daughters. They shall be known and renowned. Even as the children of the renowned – * shall they be.

If there be those that are stubborn, rebellious and obstinate, I shall remove the Royal Diadem and the Crown of Glory and I shall give it to another, says the Lord. This is the day of My visitation unto you. I shall call the recording angels of Heaven and earth to record to you, this day that it is sealed upon you and it cannot be removed, in Jesus' mighty name.

For you shall not build unto Me or unto yourself buildings of places to in-gather. You shall continue with the plan as I have given you in the beginning. For it is My plan. It shall be by My design, and shall not be by groping as in the dark - for My people that have been sitting in the valley and shadow of darkness have seen the light.

Even as Paul had seen the light, but his fellow-laborers saw not the light, but he became the reflection of that light even as John bore witness of that light. For it is given unto you, to know and to see the Just One (Acts 22:12-14). For I have many people that must yet come to the light. My light is understanding.

For out of the center of the Hub – it shall grow forth from the House of Prayer. For I have said My House shall be called a "House of Prayer". For this is of Me. The fifth shall be My grace. For out of My grace shall flow forth grace and favor to all that are willing and obedient. For have I not said the first shall be last and the last shall be first. Thus it shall be as the fifth place of ministry is to be readied- -then it shall be built by My design.

For into this place shall flow the outreach ministries and from these in-gathering meetings shall flow the fullness of Christ...the workings of the fullness of the gifts of the Holy Ghost. For when you have the nine gifts come together, then shall be fulfilled the scripture, “these works and even greater works shall you do.”

There are the many that shall be raised up at the appointed time for the world to see. This is a part of the ministry of the End-Time Church. For even as I have called John to make ready a people for the Lord, even so this will...bear the forerunner spirit that was upon John. This shall be a spirit of preparation and of preparedness, for this is the separation work.

For out of the center of the hub, it shall grow forth from the House of Prayer. For I have said, “My House shall be called a House of Prayer”. For this is of Me. The fifth shall be My grace. For I have called for My people to come out and be separate--even unto Me. For I will not have a piece of a people: but it shall be all or none. For, I place in your hands the final decision and you shall go forth by faith. Faith is by My grace and in My grace is My tolerance and contingency for flesh.

For the government shall be by the voice of twelve. For disciples shall be sent out... They shall go as servants into the out-of-the-way places to compel them to come in to My House that it may be full. For this shall move to the outer borders of the city for the final phases of the building of My "House of Prayer".

1. Blueprint Prophecy 2002 Version

This apparently was a cut and paste job from the document released by IHOP to staffers in Kansas City. Greg Burnett, who has long been involved with both IHOP and ZHOP, posted it on his website in 2003 along with some context.

The source code for the webpage makes references to versions of Mozilla and Windows NT that serve to confirm the contemporaneous nature of this webpage.

The 2002 version includes the introductory notes which are similar to the 2009 version, however a quote by Bob Jones differs slightly in the two versions.

2. Blueprint Prophecy 2006 Version

The 2006 version contains the date March 26, 1984 on the header. However, this was the date of the original prophecy, not the date of this version which was created on MS Word – which was not in use in 1984. This version was created by Jack Hill on August 15, 2006.

This version is still posted on the IHOP International website. It does not include introductory notes.

3. Blueprint Prophecy 2009 Versions

The 2009 version was prepared for the 10th anniversary celebration at IHOP in the fall of 2009. Like the 2002 version, it includes introductory notes.

Metatags in this version still identify Jack Hill with a date of 9-10-04, however we believe that to be the autor and date of the template used to produce this document. In the body of the text it states “edited September 19, 2009.” Metatags also indicate that the document was last revised by Misty Edwards on September 19, 2009. This was published as an MS Word document.

This same document was converted to pdf by Stephen Jordan on September 28, 2009.

A third version featured a change in the heard from “Prophetic History” to “Encountering Jesus,” which suggests that this used in an introductory class at “IHOPU.” The Title has been changed from “The Blueprint Prophecy” to “The Blueprint Prophecy and the Dark Horse.” suggesting a change of emphasis. The Dark Horse speaks of persecution.

This document was prepared on December 7, 2009, by Nick Syrett.

The text of the prophecy is identical in all three 2009 versions. We have utilized the September 28, 2009 copy in our archive.

For reference we have also included the original article on Beyond Grace which was the impetus for this paper. Thanks to many who provided comments and prayer as this project developed, and thanks to Andy who reminded me of Greg Burnett's helpful archive.

Background for the blueprint prophecy:

1) Friday, March 23, 1984 - Bob Jones tells Mike Bickle, "God will give you the Lord's Blueprints for this work on Monday, March 26." Bob heard this audibly from the Lord. The next day, Bob called Mike to reinforce the certainty and significance of the Lord's Blueprints coming on Monday. The following morning, at the Sunday church service, Bob again emphasized the significance of this.

2) Monday, March 26, 1984 - A prophetic man unknown by our team drives 4 hours to Kansas City from central Kansas to hand deliver this prophetic word in written form. Without meeting anyone, he dropped it off in an envelope and left. In the cover letter, he said the Holy Spirit fell on him late Saturday night (March 24) and he began to prophesy concerning a church in Kansas City that he had heard about. He had his tape recorder and thus recorded it entirely. He transcribed it on Sunday then drove 4 hours on Monday to give it to Mike Bickle. No one was in the church office at that time he arrived therefore, he left an envelope marked "Confidential-Mike Bickle Only." Late Monday afternoon, Mike returned to the church office and saw the envelope on his desk. Then Bob Jones called and asked if Mike had yet received the Lord's blueprints for our work. Bob told Mike this was a historic day. Mike asked the Lord for further confirmation beyond Bob's prophecy of a "Blueprint word being given on Monday." Bob had never heard of this man. To this day, Bob has never met him.

3) Sept. 13, 1984 - God supernaturally gave the second confirmation of the authenticity of this word to Mike Bickle in a direct supernatural encounter in which an angel spoke the words concerning the blueprint prophecy that it "contained much truth and great light." Mike interpreted this to mean that this prophetic word did not contain all the light concerning our future ministry. He understood that more truth would follow concerning our ministry as it unfolded over the years.

4) June 23, 1992 - Paul Cain's "Consolidation Prophecy," was the third confirmation. At this time we released very limited aspects of this word publicly.

5) Since March 1984, Mike has shared this word on key occasions but only with the primary staff leadership team. He decided not to make the word public, nor to share it with the general church staff.

6) Mike has not allowed this word to ever guide the leadership knowing that the "present tense direction of the Holy Spirit" is the only reliable way to go forward. Prophetic words like this must only serve as a confirmation of what the Holy Spirit speaks to the leadership team in any given "present" season.

7) In 1989, Noel Alexander drove 4 hours to meet this man. Noel also confirmed what the angel spoke in September of 1984 about this man.

8) On Nov. 7, 2002, we discerned it the proper season to release more of this word to the IHOP staff.

NOTE - the editing of this prophecy in no way enhances the scope of this word - nor does it contain all the information given.

Yes, this must be a "do-work," and a new work.

As I open My hand--even out of the clouds, even as I have shown you and I shall show you - as My hand opens and pulsates so shall the children grow mightily and quickly.

I shall bring them up, teach them and lead them by the right way that they might go and prepare a City for Habitation - they will plant their vineyards and sow their fields. Their cattle shall give their increase, says the Lord. For even as I have sent My messengers and many have heard the voice. I have, shot the arrow of My deliverance for My people. The arrow is the flaming arrow of My deliverance of My gospel and of My power.

The Out-Pouring of the Latter Rain shall be released in this area and upon this city. It shall be noised abroad even worldwide. They will stand in awe and will return unto the Holy reverence of My Name and of My people. They shall flourish. The way of My teachings shall be by My Spirit and My Word. I will do a new thing.

I will visit them in the night season with dreams and visions as I have said in My Word. I will even send My angels. I will take people in the Spirit and catch them away in the Spirit...it shall be by Me and I shall teach them in new ways.

My Word shall not return unto me void but that which I have said is absolute. My Word is absolute. My Word is sovereign. My Word is established. My Word shall be.

If there be those that are stubborn, rebellious and obstinate, I shall remove the Royal Diadem and the Crown of Glory and I shall give it to another, says the Lord. This is the day of My visitation unto you. I shall call the recording angels of Heaven and earth to record to you this day - it is sealed upon you and it cannot be removed, in Jesus' mighty name.

For you shall not build unto Me or unto yourself buildings of places to ingather. You shall continue with the plan as I have given you in the beginning. For it is My plan. It shall be by My design and shall not be by groping as in the dark.

Even as Paul had seen the light, but his fellow-laborers saw not the light, but he became the reflection of that light, even as John bore witness of that light. For it is given unto you, to know and to see the Just One (Acts 22:12-14). For I have many people that must yet come to the light. My Light is Understanding.

For out of the center of the Hub - it shall grow forth from the House of Prayer. For I have said, "My House shall be called a House of Prayer." For this is of Me. The fifth shall be My grace. For out of My grace shall flow forth grace and favor to all that are willing and obedient. For have I not said, the first shall be last and the last shall be first. Thus, it shall be as the fifth place of ministry is to be readied--then it shall be built by My design.

For into this place shall flow the outreach ministries and from these ingathering meetings shall flow the fullness of Christ...the workings of the fullness of the gifts of the Holy Ghost. For when you have the nine gifts - come together, then shall be fulfilled the Scripture, "these works and even greater works shall you do."

There are the many that shall be raised up at the appointed time for the world to see. This is a part of the ministry of the End-Time Church. For even as I have called John to make ready a people for the Lord, even so this will bear the forerunner spirit that was upon John. This shall be a spirit of preparation and of preparedness, for this is the separation work. For I have called My people to come out and be separate--even unto Me. For I will not have a piece of a people: but it shall be all or none.

For, I place in your hands the final decision and you shall go forth by faith. Faith is by My grace and in My grace is My tolerance and contingency for flesh.

For the government shall be by the voice of twelve. For disciples shall be sent out... They shall go as servants into the "out of the way" places to compel them to come in to My House that it may be full. For this shall move to the outer borders of the city for the final phases of the building of My House of Prayer.

BLUEPRINT PROPHECY

(edited) March 26, 1984

2006 VERSION

God shall confirm in your spirit; and do not proceed until He does. Upon the confirmation you should begin to act immediately to take the bride to the city; to the city of Kansas City, rather than having the city come to Him.

Therefore there should be another...on the north side and on the east side and on the west side, even as it is on the south side. Therefore there shall be four.... I have shown you My grace. My grace is sufficient. My grace is Me in you and in this shall be the 5-fold ministry.

In days past, I have said...You are a Garden Center...of My choice says the Lord. In My Garden Center...I shall raise up...plants of renown... it shall be known, and the ways shall be renown. I will bring and place...those that will be the caretakers of My (Garden Center...). You shall be a dresser of My vineyard, says the Lord, and the vineyard shall be these people that I shall bring unto you and out of you. Even out of the loins of the blood line of the flesh of Abraham--even as I said there would be many seeds and many nations, kindred, and tongues... I shall raise up and there shall flow forth many sons and daughters. They shall be known and renowned. Even as the children of the renowned – shall they be. These children shall flow out of...My Spirit. They shall be spiritual children and they shall inhabit the uttermost parts of the earth. They shall inhabit the place that I have called for you to settle and to raise up other ministries and to send out.

You shall set in order...as I call the signals—you shall only be acting as I send in the signals to you. As I give you the word of My messengers, you shall hear and it shall be confirmed as a truth in your heart and you shall act upon it.

Upon the acting of this, I will place within you and within your hands the 5-fold ministry. The ministry shall flow and rotate...You shall set in as I will call and place in your hands to anoint with the Holy Oil - the significance of My acceptance of those whom I shall confirm by My Holy Spirit....that I would...prepare for Me a bride in this area. The people shall flow then into the tabernacles of habitation.

They shall flow from the North, the East, the South and the West. They shall come and they shall be dandled by their sides... You shall be ministers of light and ministers of truth of Me, says the Lord. Even this shall be a people that shall be known of Me and I shall be their God and they shall be My people. Their responsibility lies within Me and their safety lies within drawing close together. Yes, I would have them draw real close together. I say unto you again, that their safety lies in drawing real close together. There shall be unity of the Spirit and of the doctrine. Your doctrine shall be My doctrine - by My Spirit.

I will prepare a place for My people. You shall go forth and lead My people to a place of habitation. I will show you and I will guide you. I will be your purse bearer. I will hand the checks and the money as the time is prepared for this. There shall be a time and a season and a place for My people to go. Even as I shall call them forth before the cities become desolate. You shall raise up...other cities that shall be the permanent place. There shall be schools of ministry. They shall flow out of the city into the country--into the country, into the City of Habitation; says the Lord.

This load shall be too heavy for you. You shall not be able to bear the burden alone. I shall raise up helpmates, yes, even many help-mates both male and female. I will set them and call them to stand by your side. You shall go forth and lead a people even as Moses led a people and there shall be those that shall lift up your hands. You shall consecrate this people...and assign and delegate. I would have you to delegate the authority, duty, and responsibility, because you cannot carry this load yourself. The burden is too heavy and the journey is too far.

I will send wise men even as I sent wise men to behold My Son's birth, so shall I send wise men to teach you, help you, guide, you and to be a strength and a source of supply to you. I shall be your purse bearer. I shall raise up ministers of finance in this area. To those that will hear My voice, yield, become obedient and truly do as My word says by setting the Kingdom first in their heart - I shall bless them. I shall cause them to prosper and they will be prospering because it is. They will remember and know that of a truth that it is their Lord and their God that gives them power to get wealth (Deut. 8:18). They shall prosper when there is no prosperity and bear fruit when others are barren. Your land and your habitation shall be a place of a forerunner - you shall go before hand. Even as I sent Joseph before hand, so shall you go before....you shall send forth the Joseph out of My bride and My congregation to prepare--even to make ready a time and a place that I shall choose, it shall be of My choosing and of My calling, says the Lord.

I shall visit you. There shall be many that shall raise up out of you and you shall be known in your ministries. From out of you, shall come forth the 5-fold ministry. This ministry shall be known and established...I shall move quickly. I will do a quick work in teaching and in bringing up these people that must be brought up. Yes, this must be a “do-work,” and a new work. As I open My hand--even out of the clouds, even as I have shown you and I shall show you that - as My hand opens and pulsates so shall the children grow mightily and quickly.

I shall bring them up, teach them and lead them by the right way that they might go and prepare a City for Habitation - they will plant their vineyards and sow their fields. Session 8 The Blueprint Prophecy

I. THE BLUEPRINT PROPHECY (MARCH 26, 1984)

- A. In March of 1984, I received what I consider to be our most comprehensive prophetic word. I refer to it as the blueprint prophecy. The Lord confirmed it in a very powerful and unusual way.
- B. On Friday, March 23, Bob Jones said, “The Lord spoke to me audibly saying that ‘He was going to give me blueprints for this movement on Monday.’” The next day, he called me to reinforce the certainty and significance of the Lord sending me His “blueprints” for our future on Monday.
- C. On Monday, March 26, a prophetic man unknown to our team drove four hours to Kansas City from central Kansas to give me a prophetic word that was five pages long. He did not call us in advance so we were not expecting his visit. No one was in the church office when he arrived so he left it in an envelope marked, “Confidential, for Mike Bickle’s eyes only.” Soon after he left, I arrived at the office and immediately read the prophecy. Then Bob Jones called me to ask if I had received the “Lord’s blueprints” for the youth movement. He said this was a historic day.
- D. In the cover letter he explained that the Holy Spirit had given him blueprints for our movement. This prophecy included the 24/7 house of prayer. It also spoke of the forerunner ministry in the spirit of John the Baptist, the Bride of Christ, and the Joseph Company. These were ideas that were not yet emphasized in our midst.
- E. On September 13, 1984, God confirmed this prophetic word to me in a supernatural encounter which included an angel and a demon. Concerning the blueprint prophecy, the angel said that it “contained much truth and great light.” I did not share this prophecy publicly for 18 years.

II. THE UNUSUAL PROPHECIC WORD IN TULSA (SEPTEMBER 9, 1984)

- A. On Sunday, September 9, 1984, Bob Jones, Augustine, and I were speaking at a church in Tulsa that met in a high school gymnasium. Nearly 1,000 people were present. Bob and Augustine were standing on the platform giving prophetic words to individuals as the Lord directed them. I was also on the platform to provide an explanation of some of the things they said.
- B. Augustine was calling out individuals in the congregation to prophesy over. He was standing on the far end of the stage. Bob and I were standing behind him on the other end of the stage. Bob whispered to me, “You see that elderly woman wearing the red dress sitting in about the tenth row? The Spirit is resting on her. I have a prophetic word to give her after Augustine is done.”
- C. Augustine could not see Bob whispering to me. Moments later, Augustine called out that very lady who was wearing the red dress. Since they both highlighted the same person at the same time out of a congregation of nearly 1,000 people, without any communication with each other, I was alerted that God might be saying something important concerning her.

- D. Augustine said, “Mother, would you come forward? I have never done this, but the Spirit told me to ask you to pray for us.” Bob, Augustine, and I left the stage to meet her on the ground level.
- E. First, she prophesied to Bob saying, “God has given you much understanding of His purposes for the nation of Israel.” Next, she prophesied to Augustine about a supernatural encounter that he was soon to have. It occurred the following Thursday night. It confirmed the blueprint prophecy.
- F. She said, “Young man, in your visions, you have seen angels and you have seen demons, but you have never seen an angel and a demon together in the same vision. Very soon you will see both an angel and a demon in one vision. They will be in a conflict which will manifest in the flesh.”
- G. Following that meeting, we drove back to Kansas City. I asked them what they thought about the lady’s prophecy. They both agreed that she gave them a true word from the Lord. Augustine verified that he had never seen an angel and a demon in one vision. He was perplexed by her prophecy that he would see a spiritual conflict which would be manifest in the flesh.
- H. During our four hour drive, a spirit of prophecy fell on Augustine. He prophesied about the future of the youth movement in Kansas City. He used some of same language that was in the blueprint prophecy. I had not told him about it. I was hoping that the Lord would reveal it to him.
- I. Later that week, after the Wednesday evening prayer meeting, I drove Augustine to the house that he often stayed at when he visited Kansas City. He lived in Phoenix, Arizona. It was then that I spoke to him about the blueprint prophecy for the first time. I let him read it. He said, “This prophecy is so important that I must ask the Lord to speak to me in a direct way about it.”
- J. About midnight, I got in my car to drive home. I was perplexed that it would not start. The man whose house Augustine was staying in had already gone to bed or he could have given me a ride home. So, I had to spend the night at his house. He only had one extra bedroom, but it was large and had two beds on opposite sides of the room and so I had to sleep in the room with Augustine. On Thursday morning September 13, Augustine and I had the spiritual encounter with angels and demons that the lady in Tulsa had prophesied four days earlier. The details are too complicated so I will only give a few of the main points of this very unusual encounter.
- K. At 5:00am I was awakened by great pain in my right knee. Augustine was kneeling on the floor having an open vision. He saw a large demon that appeared as a large black horse that struck me on my right knee. An angel told Augustine that when we “went to the east” I would be attacked with demonic rage. We had planted a new congregation in the east of Kansas City in October 1989. In December of that year, Noel Alexander said, “Now that we have gone to the east, we will surely be attacked by the black horse that appeared to Augustine back in September of 1984.” In the spring of 1990, we were attacked with false charges made by different ministries around America and other nations. My knee was in great pain for the next eighteen hours and it came and went over the next thirty days. Mysteriously, my car worked the next morning.

Revisionism and The Blueprint Prophecy

Imagine, if you will, a leader of a religious group or secret society who based his entire movement on a foundational document - but yet would not share the contents of that document. Sacred writings, which were delivered to him by an unidentified mystery prophet. A blueprint which was confirmed to him by a "supernatural encounter which included an angel and a demon." Writings which were confirmed by yet another prophet, one who later was discovered to have had women stand in front of him naked while he "prophesied" over them.

Mormonism? Freemasons? No, this movement is known as the "24/7 Prayer Movement" whose adherents are called "Forerunners." They are best known as the "International House of Prayer" (IHOP) and the leader is Mike Bickle.

The foundational document is something they call the "Blueprint Prophecy."

In Bickle's world it is a given that all prophesies must be tested and judged. However, Bickle to this day, has not released a complete, full version of the prophecy which was given to him in writing. Assuming that other leaders in the movement may have had access to the complete document, the parallels to Mormonism and Freemasonry are stunning. In movements such as these, certain elements of their teachings are revealed only to those who have earned trust.

Looking for the earliest extant version of the Blueprint Prophecy has been like looking for the Dead Sea Scrolls. Or the golden tablets. According to Mike Bickle, the original Blueprint prophecy was received on March 26, 1984. Bickle also states that the Blueprint was not made "public" until 2002, although portions have been withheld. This has been independently confirmed by notes posted by IHOP staffer Greg Burnett, who states the decision to release an edited version was made November 7, 2002. Burnett also did a cut and paste from the 2002 version to his website in 2003(1).

The 2006 version of the Blueprint Prophecy(2) is identified as an edited version and is dated March 26, 1984. However, this version was created on MS Word (not available in 1984) by Jack Hill and the meta-data tag is August 15, 2006. The 2006 version varies little from the 2002 version.

The 2009 version(3), which was posted on the IHOP website in support for a special 10 year anniversary celebration which featured talks on the history of the movement by Mike Bickle.(4) It was prepared by Stephen Jordan (on a Mac OS X 10) on September 28, 2009. The document states that it was edited on September 19, 2009 by Misty Edwards. Interestingly enough, some changes that were made in 2006 were reverted in 2009.

Judging Prophecy

Bickle has stated that this document is a "comprehensive prophetic word." The unidentified prophet stated "the Lord gave me the blueprints for your movement."(5) While Bickle has not ascribed to the blueprint the weight of scripture, it is clearly identified as a prophetic word from the Lord. A case could be made from Bickle's teachings that Bickle looks at all scripture through the lens of the Blueprint Prophecy. Nonetheless, Bickle's own movement teaches the importance of judging prophetic words.

A Great post from Beyond Grace - Our buddy Bill posted a link on one of our threads to a post he has just written. I was so impressed with it that I asked if we could post it over here. He...

"Two or three prophets should speak, and the others should weigh carefully what is said." (NASB) 1 Corinthians 14:29

"Now these were more noble-minded than those in Thessalonica, for they received the word with great eagerness, examining the Scriptures daily (to see) whether these things were so." (NASB) Acts 17:11.

"We believe that the subjectivity of the prophetic ministry must be vigorously tested against the inspired and infallible Scriptures that God gave for doctrine, reproof, correction and for instruction in righteousness." Affirmations and Denials (6)

Somehow, the Blueprint Prophecy gets a "free pass." Bickle has stated that portions were removed by him, things that, in his words fell into the category of "I don't know what that means,"(7) so he did not want them in print (circulation).

Mike Bickle, in 1982, received a prophetic word that said "I (the Lord) will change the understanding and expression of Christianity in one generation."(8) If Bickle's movement is indeed this significant in the history of the church then, like scripture, the dispensation of this message should not be left up to "private interpretation." (c.f. 2 Peter 1:20)

Shifting Sands

Even more disturbing is the changing nature of this pivotal document. In response to accusations of aberrant doctrine and practice, Bickle's organization released a statement of "Affirmations and Denials" in 2008.(9) The document addresses issues such as the "Latter Rain" and the "Joel's Army." Bickle says his prophetic movement is all about "standing boldly in faith for what the Spirit is saying."(10) Could it be the "spirit" keeps changing his mind? Or is the "spirit" saying things for which we cannot "boldly stand?"

Dozens of changes have been made and will no doubt be discussed by others. For the purpose of brevity, I would like to highlight just a few typical revisions. The first has to do with the "Latter Rain."

The Out-Pouring of the Latter Rain shall be released in this area and upon this city. It shall be noised abroad even world-wide. They will stand in awe and will return unto the Holy reverence of My Name and of My people. They shall flourish. The way of My teachings shall be by My Spirit and My Word. I will do a new thing. (emphasis supplied) 2006	The outpouring shall be released in this area and upon this city. It shall be noised abroad even worldwide. They will stand in awe and will return unto the Holy reverence of My Name and of My people. They shall flourish. The way of My teachings shall be by My Spirit and My Word. I will do a new thing. 2009

In Affirmations, Bickle attempts to distance himself from the label "Latter Rain," a doctrinal aberration espoused by the entire apostolic/prophetic movement. (11) In their most recent edit of the foundational document, supernaturally delivered and confirmed, Bickle conveniently removed the phrase Latter Rain. Is this one of those things which Bickle does not "know what it means?" Surely someone has explained this to him at some point in time.

Bickle, as with most large para-church organizations, has not been immune to criticism regarding money. Bickle's organization of "Treasure Bringers"(12) ("Ministers of Finance" in the blueprint) seeks men who will behave like an "unrighteous steward." One leader within his organization has stated "The Treasure Bringers are those with an anointing from God to facilitate this massive wealth-transfer." "They are spiritual 'Robin Hoods.' Their greatest joy is plundering the wealth of the world for their Lord."(13) Perhaps editing the prophecy could tone this down a bit.

I will prepare a place for My people. You shall go forth and lead My people to a place of habitation. I will show you and I will guide you. Even as I shall call them forth before the cities become desolate. 2009
--	---

Note that the phrase about "checks and money," although deleted in this portion of the 2009 word, reappears later on in the prophecy where the phrase "I will be your purse bearer" occurs again. The "purse bearer" phrase is seen twice in 2006, but only once in 2009. So here we see a shift in location and frequency of certain critical statements, perhaps changing the emphasis of those statements.

Just as the King James and the NIV bibles are translated in different manners, so it is with the Blueprint Prophecy. In the case of the Blueprint, we cannot go back to the original Greek. We can't even go back to the original English!

This load shall be too heavy for you. You shall not be able to bear the burden alone. I shall raise up helpmates, yes, even many helpmates both male and female. I will set them and call them to stand by your side. You shall go forth and lead a people even as Moses led a people and there shall be those that shall lift up your hands. You shall consecrate this people... 2006	This load shall be too heavy for you. You shall not be able to bear the burden alone. I shall raise up many helpers both male and female. I will set them and call them to stand by your side. You shall go forth and lead a people even as Moses led a people. There shall be those that shall lift up your hands. Consecrate this people... 2009

Here it appears that Bickle was either attempting to modernise some archaic language (archaic in 1983, too) or he wanted to avoid the implication that he would have both male and female mates, thus distancing him from Ted Haggard and many other fallen figures in the Charismatic movement. Personally, I think its a credible change, but this does not represent an edit, but rather a translation.

This however, is a distraction. Note the real purpose of this paragraph is to state that Bickle is the new Moses. Perhaps other portions of this prophecy are even more grandiose which could be another explanation as to why they remain secret. Bickle states that some secret things in the prophecy were "too big" for him to wrap his brain around. No problem with the Moses thing, though.

Bickle also corrects what could lead to blatant theological error in removing "You shall" from the phrase "You shall consecrate." This makes sense, but the question as to the original text, the "prophetic word," remains.

This section features a few simple edits which seem benign enough. The emphasis supplied in the 2009 version seems to be a justification of the cult-like atmosphere seen at the Kansas City compound ("City of Habitation").

Even this shall be a people that shall be known of Me and I shall be their God and they shall be My people. Their responsibility lies within Me and their safety lies within drawing close together. Yes, I would have them draw real close together. I say unto you again, that their safety lies in drawing real close together. There shall be unity of the Spirit and of the doctrine. Your doctrine shall be My doctrine - by My Spirit. 2006	Even this shall be a people that shall be known of Me. I shall be their God and they shall be My people. Their responsibility lies within Me. Their safety lies within drawing close together. Yes, I would have them draw real close together. I say again, that their safety lies in drawing close together. (emphasis supplied) There shall be unity of the Spirit and of the doctrine. Your doctrine shall be My doctrine. 2009

More importantly is the tacit approval of the teachings of Mike Bickle seen in the statement "Your doctrine shall be my doctrine - by My Spirit." This is not unlike the standard charismatic validation of a prophetic word: "The Lord says - hear the word of my prophet, for I have given him my word." The use of the phrase "by My Spirit" in the 2006 version plausibly implies that God has a work to do in Mike Bickle, and that He is going to align Bickle's doctrine with His. The 2009 version implies that God will adopt Mike Bickle's doctrine.

And it is this sort of grandiose elevation of Mike Bickle above mere mortals that causes alarm. Simply put, if what was delivered in the original prophecy was so significant, should not the body of Christ know? Or is Mike Bickle the benevolent Pope whom God entrusts, but others cannot handle this divine revelation. Martin Luther, where are you now?

Upon the acting of this, I will place within you and within your hands the 5-fold ministry. The ministry shall flow and rotate... You shall set in as I will call and place in your hands to anoint with the Holy Oil - the significance of My acceptance of those whom I shall confirm by My Holy Spirit... that I would ... prepare for Me a bride in this area. 2006	Upon the acting of this, I will place within you and within your hands the 5-fold ministry. --	---

Indeed, in the Blueprint Prophecy (unabridged), Mike Bickle has been established as the one who will "anoint with the Holy Oil" the accepted ones in the last days church - the bride that prepares for the soon coming Lord. And as previously noted, Bickle is the one who "shall consecrate" this people.

I don't think further commentary is necessary. I am nailing this article to the door of the internet. If you have followed Mike Bickle blindly, accepting everything he has said, and believing that he has kept things secret to protect you, or because you could not possibly understand it, I am calling you to repent. It is wrong to accept unjudged prophecy and let it govern your life.

By their own admission the Blueprint Prophecy is foundational. Mike Bickle has chosen to keep secret certain portions of that written word which was once delivered to him, and to revise other portions which seem offensive. Mike, it is time to show us your cards.
